

Pets and Travel

85% of pet parents say they're likely to travel within the next year. 65% say they'll bring their pets along.

After months of spending extra time at home with pets:

47% would cancel a vacation that isn't pet-friendly to avoid leaving their pet behind.

58% say they're seeking pet-friendly accommodations for their future stays.

Pet-friendly expectations are here to stay:

7 in 10 Gen Z and Millennial pet parents say they're more likely to travel in the future if pets are welcome.

77% of Gen Z and 84% of Millennials say they're likely to bring their pets while traveling. So would 78% of those who added a new pet during the pandemic.

Pets are part of travel plans...

65% want a destination that includes pet-friendly activities like hiking.

62% want a destination with pet-friendly businesses.

When choosing where to stay, pet parents rank pet-friendliness near the top, behind only free WiFi and parking.

...so consider these pet-friendly destinations

With pet-friendly policies, parks and businesses, Better Cities For Pets™ certified cities are committed to making pets welcome.

Homewood Suites by Hilton, Home2 Suites by Hilton and Mars Petcare are making your stays even more pet-friendly. Here are just a few destinations to get you started.

Find out more about these cities and pet-friendly travel at BetterCitiesForPets.com and newsroom.hilton.com.

